AMA PRO RACING MANAGING MEMBERS
DAVID ATLAS

David Atlas has been one of the Managing Members of AMA Pro Racing since 2008. A longtime motorcycle racer, Atlas was trained as a mechanical engineer and businessman, and holds mechanical engineering and law degrees from the Cooper Union School of Engineering and Harvard Law School. Atlas started as a propulsion system design engineer for the Navy Department in Washington, DC; following law school, he began a 34-year career in professional motorsports. Atlas has worked with and represented many of the leading people and organizations in the business of professional motorsports, including Roger Penske, Chip Ganassi, Emerson Fittipaldi, the IROC Series, GRAND-AM, and some fifty other race teams and professional motorsports athletes over the years. Atlas himself began racing as a 14-year-old and competed regularly for more than a decade at West Palm Beach and AHRMA/Daytona in the 350cc and 500cc two-stroke classes.

TOM BLEDSOE

Daytona Beach native Tom Bledsoe has been an integral member of the NASCAR group of companies since 1990. As one of AMA Pro Racing's Managing Members, Bledsoe has also served as the President of GRAND-AM Road Racing. Prior to his promotion to President, Bledsoe was COO and acting President of GRAND-AM; prior to that, he served as Vice-President of Finance of GRAND-AM and Treasurer for GRAND-AM's parent company, NASCAR. A longtime motorcycle owner and enthusiast, Bledsoe brings a wealth of motorcycle, motorsport, and fiscal knowledge to AMA Pro Racing, and his careful guidance plays an important role in its operation.

GEORGE SILBERMANN

George Silberman is NASCAR's Vice President, Regional and Touring Series — a position he was named to in April 2011. Silberman, who is based at NASCAR's Corporate Headquarters in Daytona Beach, Fla., oversees the Weekly Racing, Regional Touring, Registration and Member Services. In recent years he has played a central role in NASCAR's efforts to strengthen its developmental competition levels. Silberman's resume covers more than 30 years in motorsports. Prior to joining NASCAR in 1999, he was president and COO of the International Motor Sports Association (IMSA) sports car organization. He also formerly served as a member of the Executive Board of the ACCUS/FIA and on the National Motorsports Council, as well as being a former FIA International Steward. In addition, Silberman was a co-founder of GRAND-AM Road Racing, in 2000. Silberman and his wife Kathy reside in Ormond Beach, Fla. They have two sons, Eric and Brian.

AMA PRO RACING MANAGING MEMBERS
TODD WILSON

R. Todd Wilson serves as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at NASCAR and is also a member of the company's Executive Council. Wilson, who reports directly to NASCAR Chairman and CEO Brian France, serves as NASCAR's highest ranking financial officer. He oversees all financial issues affecting the sanctioning body and continues to serve as Chief Financial Officer of NASCAR Broadcasting and NASCAR Media Group. Wilson's most recent responsibilities include serving as the Assistant Treasurer of NASCAR and Chief Financial Officer of NASCAR Broadcasting, NASCAR Digital Entertainment and NASCAR Images. Todd is responsible for managing the NASCAR media rights and negotiated some of the largest television and the new media right contracts in the history of sports. Born on June 30, 1962, Wilson holds both a bachelor's degree of science and a master's degree in accounting from the University of Florida. He is a member of both the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Florida Institute of Certified Public Accountants (FICPA). A NASCAR employee since 1999, Wilson has held several key positions in the company. Prior to joining NASCAR, Wilson's 14-year career in public accounting included an extensive working background in many industries. Wilson is based at NASCAR headquarters in Daytona Beach, Fla. He and wife Sharon have one son, Brad.

MARK RAFFAUF

Mark Raffauf is a 35-year-plus racing official and motorsports management executive. Raffauf began his motorsports management career working for John Bishop at IMSA in the early 1970s and continued on with the organization through the mid-1990s. He has been an integral part of the competition departments of Grand-Am Road Racing and IMSA since the very beginning of both organizations, with responsibilities that include rules enforcement, event management and regulations, driver conduct and briefings, and directing the Grand-Am operations staff. Having held the positions of Race Director, Technical Director, Vice President and President of IMSA, Raffauf is a board member of ACCUS/FIA, and a member of the FIA Sports Prototype Commission and International Steward for World Championship events.

AMA Pro Road Racing Overview

AMA Pro Road Racing is the premier motorcycle road racing series in North America and is universally regarded as one of the most competitive road racing organizations in the world. The 2014 schedule includes rounds on many of the country's finest road courses.

The Series is comprised of four production-based classes: AMA Pro SuperBike, AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike, AMA Pro SuperSport and the AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series. The performance characteristics of the motorcycles raced in each division are configured with the intent of providing ascending platforms for riders to compete and hone their skills as they climb the ladder to the premier AMA Pro SuperBike division.

AMA Pro SuperBike continues a motorcycle racing legend that began in 1976 and features fast, powerful, large-displacement motorcycles based on a rule set that allows for a variety of performance modifications. Traditionally considered a 1000cc class, the rule structure has been updated to provide a platform for additional big-bore motorcycles to compete within the same performance envelope. Seven different brands were represented on the SuperBike grids in 2013: Yamaha, Suzuki, Kawasaki, Honda, BMW, EBR and KTM.

The carefully designed rule package for GoPro Daytona SportBike provides a platform for motorcycles with different engine configurations to compete on even ground and since the class debuted in 2009, it has become known for extremely close racing and a great depth of field. Due to the parity in performance, it is not uncommon to see packs of 10 motorcycles from five or more different brands battling for the lead in every turn. GoPro Daytona SportBike is also the featured class in America's premier endurance motorcycle road race, the DAYTONA 200.

AMA Pro SuperSport is the proving ground for AMA Pro's up-and-coming motorcycle talent. The rules allow riders to select from the same diverse set of machines that are eligible for competition in Daytona SportBike, but with fewer modifications. In previous seasons, the events on the season's schedule have been divided into East and West divisions; however, the class will be contested as a single National championship in 2014. A special award highlighting the younger SuperSport riders is given to the highest-points-scoring 16- to 18-year-old rider.

The Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series made its debut halfway through the 2010 season, bringing with it the return of one of the most evocative names in motorcycling: Harley-Davidson. Using the Harley-Davidson XR1200 modified with a specially-prepared parts-and-accessories kit from famed motorcycle performance tuner Vance & Hines, riders can race the big twins on the national stage in a cost-contained manner that emphasizes rider skill.

On a traditional three-day event weekend, each of AMA Pro Road Racing's three sport-performance classes, AMA Pro SuperBike, GoPro Daytona SportBike and AMA Pro SuperSport, have their first practice and qualifying sessions on Friday afternoon. Grids are set following Saturday morning's final qualifying session, and each class is featured in sprint races on both Saturday and Sunday afternoons. The schedule for the Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series is similar; The big twins have practice and qualifying sessions on Saturday afternoon before battling it out in a single sprint race on Sunday afternoon.

New for 2014, select events will feature a compressed two-day event schedule introduced as a cost-savings method. Fans can still expect the same thrilling action at the two-day events, as the full complement of classes will be present and will put on the same number of race finals as they do during the traditional three-day event weekends.

In addition to watching the thrilling on-track action, fans are invited into the AMA Pro Road Racing paddock and garage areas to meet the stars of the sport and to watch as the crew chiefs and mechanics work on the machines.

Two-day AMA Pro Road Racing events will feature grid walks during opening ceremonies before the races on Sunday. Three-day events will include an additional grid walk prior to the first races of the weekend. Fans can casually stroll on the surface of some of America's finest race tracks while getting autographs, talking with riders and viewing race-prepped motorcycles positioned along the pit wall.

Track walks are also offered at select venues on the schedule, giving fans an opportunity to get up close and personal with AMA Pro riders as they walk the circuit following a day of competition. Event promoters further add to the experience by providing additional options for the fan agenda, including fan parties, vendor areas, manufacturer demo rides, motocross and BMX stunt exhibitions, street stunt riders, live music, fireworks and more.

THE HISTORY OF AMA PRO ROAD RACING

When it was founded in 1924, the AMA had an instant commitment to motorcycle competition, hosting two events that year in advance of the first full year of racing in 1925. In the early years, the premier style of racing in the U.S. was designated Class A, a formula that allowed manufacturers to build exotic one-off racing machines. Under this formula, factory teams spent large sums on racebike development and hired top riders like Jim Davis and Joe Petrali to claim championships. In the early 1930s, though, these expensive factory teams were scaled back as a result of the Depression. To combat this trend, in late 1933 the AMA Competition Committee created Class C, which called for the use of 45 c.i. (750cc) side-valve and 500cc overhead-valve machines based on stock production components. Only minor modifications were allowed, and fuel was limited to pump gas only.

In the late 1970s, road racing was given separate championship status by the AMA, and production-based Superbike racing evolved into the premier class. AMA Superbike was created in 1976 to provide a level playing field for professional racing teams and a means for motorcycle manufacturers to showcase their sport-performance, production-based models. From 1978 to 1994, U.S. riders conquered the world of grand-prix road racing, winning 13 500cc titles from 1978 to 1993. Now called AMA Pro SuperBike, the class remains the proving ground for both machines and riders.

ABOUT THE AMERICAN MOTORCYCLIST ASSOCIATION (AMA)

The American Motorcyclist Association (AMA), located in Pickerington, Ohio, is the world's premier member-driven motorcycling organization whose mission is to promote the motorcycling lifestyle and protect the future of motorcycling. From the street to the track to the trail, millions of Americans enjoy motorcycling. Some ride to work every day. Others ride for pleasure on weekends. Many ride off-road, or journey to places near and far. Still more seek the thrill of competition.

Since 1924, the AMA has protected the future of motorcycling and promoted the motorcycle lifestyle. AMA members come from all walks of life, and they navigate many different routes on their journey to the same destination: freedom on two wheels. As the world's largest motorcycling organization, the AMA advocates for motorcyclists' interests in the halls of local, state and federal government, the committees of international governing organizations, and the court of public opinion.

Through member clubs, promoters and partners, the AMA sanctions more motorsports competition and motorcycle recreational events than any other organization in the world. Through its Motorcycle Hall of Fame, the AMA preserves the heritage of motorcycling for future generations. AMA members receive money saving discounts from dozens of well-known suppliers of motorcycle services, gear and apparel, bike rental, transport, hotel stays and more. The AMA is everything motorcycle.

ABOUT AMA PRO RACING

In 2008, the American Motorcyclist Association announced the sale of certain of its professional racing properties to AMA Pro Racing, based in Daytona Beach, Florida. The move was brought about by the need for the association to place the management of professional racing in the hands of a well-resourced motorsports entertainment company. The rules packages introduced by AMA Pro in 2009 have been subtly refined to provide technical stability and rules consistency, which has shifted the focus of the sport to the compelling battles on the track amongst a magnificent group of athletes.

AMA Pro SuperBIKE

AMA Pro SuperBike continues a motorcycle racing legend that began in 1976 and features fast, powerful large-displacement motorcycles based on a rule set that allows for a variety of performance modifications. Traditionally considered a 1000cc class, the rule structure has been updated to provide a platform for additional big-bore motorcycles to compete within the same performance envelope. AMA Pro SuperBikes all have direct roots in production street bikes and each eligible model represents the most powerful motorcycle available from top manufacturers such as Yamaha, Suzuki, Kawasaki, Honda, BMW, Buell, EBR, KTM and Ducati.

AMA Pro SuperBikes all have at least 1000cc in engine displacement from a variety of twin and multi-cylinder powerplants. Four-cylinder, four-stroke machines have a minimum post-race weight of 380 pounds and are limited to 1000cc engines, such as the Suzuki GSX-R1000 and Yamaha YZF-R1. Two-cylinder, four-stroke machines must tip the scales at a minimum post-race weight of 370 pounds and cannot exceed 1200cc displacement engines, such as the EBR 1190RS, KTM RC8R and Ducati 1098R.

The real proof of the AMA Pro SuperBikes' power becomes evident when they hit the track, where top speeds in excess of 190 mph are not uncommon. Keeping that type of power on the track is critical, and AMA Pro Road Racing's spec-tire partner Dunlop has a proven record of championship-caliber racing performance and a storied history within the paddock.

Front wheel size is 17 by 3.5 inches and the rear wheel size is 17 by 6 inches for all machines. The use of carbon fiber or carbon-composite material for brake components is not allowed and titanium brake discs are also outlawed. Cost savings for the teams are great, and the SuperBikes can still stop on a dime.

Since the 2009 season, Sunoco has fueled the outstanding competition found at AMA Pro Road Racing events with Sunoco 260 GTX, a premium unleaded racing fuel designed to meet the performance needs of the Series.

As impressive as the machines are in AMA Pro SuperBike, it is the all-star lineup of riders that truly put on the show. Three-time, defending AMA Pro SuperBike Champion Josh Hayes had his throne overtaken in 2013 by none other than his Monster Energy Graves teammate, Josh Herrin. Expect Hayes to be on a mission in 2014 as he battles it out for his fourth title against some of the best motorcycle racing talent in the world, including Martin Cardenas, Larry Pegram, Roger Hayden, Cameron Beaubier and more.

Success on the racetrack has always been an important element of motorcycle marketing and AMA Pro SuperBike provides an exciting, competitive environment that enables many motorcycle manufacturers to showcase their latest models on a level playing field and in front of a loyal, knowledgeable fan base—on some of the best racetracks in the USA.

AMA Pro SuperBIKE – QUICK FACTS

Horsepower: 200 hp
 Minimum Weights: 380 lbs: 4-Cylinder/4-Stroke 1000cc engines; 370 lbs: 2-Cylinder/4-Stroke engines up to 1200cc
 Top Speed: Over 190 MPH
 0-60 MPH: Under 3 seconds
 ¼ Mile Acceleration: Low 9 seconds
 Tires: Dunlop KR106 (Front: 125/80R-17) and KR108 (195/65R-17)
 Race Lengths: 50-mile sprints
 Eligible Bikes: Aprilia RSV1000R/RSV4 R/RSV4 Factory, BMW S1000RR, Buell 1125R/1125RR, Ducati 1098R/1098S, EBR 1190RS, Honda CBR1000RR/CBR1000RR ABS, Kawasaki ZX-10, KTM RC8R, Suzuki GSX-R1000, Yamaha R1

AMA Pro GoPro DAYTONA SPORTBIKE

Created in 2009, AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike was envisioned as a class in which a variety of brands and configurations could compete on a level playing field, putting the emphasis on rider talent. Since that very competitive first season, the class has exploded and provides some of the best racing seen anywhere in the world — packs of 10 or more ferociously-battling bikes are almost expected.

Like AMA Pro SuperBikes, GoPro Daytona SportBikes are race-tuned descendants of some of today's top high-performance production motorcycles. Eligible bikes in GoPro Daytona SportBike include the Yamaha YZF-R6, Suzuki GSX-R600, Honda CBR600RR, Kawasaki Ninja ZX-6R, Buell 1125R, Aprilia RSV1000R, Ducati 848, Triumph Daytona 675 and the KTM 990 Super Duke. Power comes from a variety of four-stroke, multi-cylinder modified production engines and minimum bike weights range from 360 to 370 lbs., depending on engine configuration, displacement and number of cylinders.

Engine rules mandate primarily stock parts with minimal modifications and tuning and — like AMA Pro SuperBike — stock transmissions, but that doesn't mean GoPro Daytona SportBikes are just out for a weekend cruise, often reaching top speeds in excess of 175 mph. As in all AMA Pro Road Racing classes, Dunlop provides the series-standard racing tires for GoPro Daytona SportBike and competitors must use original equipment wheels. Brake components may be replaced with aftermarket items, but the use of carbon fiber, carbon composite or titanium materials for brake discs is not allowed. Sunoco 260GTX premium racing fuel is the exclusive standard for all classes of AMA Pro Road Racing.

The variety offered by GoPro Daytona SportBike rules doesn't end with the motorcycles — there's also a wide range of age and experience found among class riders. As competitors graduate from AMA Pro SuperSport to GoPro Daytona SportBike, they join an impressive field of international standouts, riders from AMA Pro SuperBike and many other genres of motorcycle racing, to compete in thrilling events that include the historic DAYTONA 200.

The DAYTONA 200 traces its history to 1937, when the inaugural race was run on the sands of Daytona Beach. In 1961, the event became synonymous with Daytona International Speedway and has since seen many great names in motorcycling history win the storied event. Run at the culmination of Daytona Bike Week on Saturday afternoon, the 200-mile race is the only endurance race on the AMA Pro Road Racing schedule, but the parity in performance combined with the depth of field found in the GoPro Daytona SportBike division all but guarantees a photo finish at the end of every race.

AMA Pro GoPro DAYTONA SPORTBIKE — QUICK FACTS

Engine Displacement: 600cc — 675cc — 848cc — 990cc — 1000cc — 1125cc
 Horsepower: 120 hp to 140 hp
 Minimum Weights: 4 cylinders — 360 lbs.; 3 cylinders — 360 lbs.; 2 cylinders — 370 lbs.
 Top Speed: Over 175 MPH
 0-60 MPH: 3 seconds
 ¼ Mile Acceleration: 10 seconds
 Tires: Dunlop SportMax GPA Front (120/70R-17) and Rear (190/55ZR-17)
 Race Lengths: 50-mile sprints. The season-opening DAYTONA 200 is 57 laps for 200 miles.
 Eligible Bikes: Aprilia RSV1000R/RSV1000R Factory, Buell 1125R, Ducati 848, Honda CBR600RR/RSV1000R ABS, Kawasaki ZX-6R, KTM 990 Super Duke, MV Agusta F3 675, Suzuki GSX-R600, Triumph Daytona 675/675R, Yamaha YZF-R6

AMA Pro SuperSport

AMA Pro SuperSport is AMA Pro Road Racing's showcase of America's future motorcycle racing stars today and the class often puts on some of the most exciting racing action at each event. This proving ground class is designed for up-and-coming riders to compete on sport bikes that are only minimally modified from what can be found at a Suzuki, Yamaha, Kawasaki, Honda or other motorcycle dealership.

The same motorcycles that are featured in the AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike division are eligible in AMA Pro SuperSport and although they are allowed less modifications, the top speeds for competing bikes still reach in excess of 165 mph. As in all AMA Pro Road Racing classes, Sunoco fuels all race bikes and Dunlop and its proven racing tires are the series-standard application in SuperSport. Competitors must use original equipment wheels and braking systems, with alternate brake pads or discs the only change allowed.

Unlike in previous seasons, the class will be contested as a single National championship in 2014. Additionally, a special award will be presented to the highest-scoring 16- to 18-year-old rider in the class.

The SuperSport class was designed to be a great place for rising stars to hone their skills as they prepare to advance up the ladder of professional road racing. Many of the riders that have ascended to the ranks of GoPro Daytona SportBike and eventually AMA Pro SuperBike show promise right away, proving that they have gained the competitive edge needed to compete as they ascend the ranks.

AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series

The AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series provides a highly-competitive, low-cost racing platform based on a carefully-designed rule set which keeps the motorcycles as evenly matched as possible. Formerly known as the AMA Pro Vance & Hines XR1200 Series, this incredibly exciting class is now known as the AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series thanks to a renewed partnership with Vance & Hines and a new agreement with the Harley-Davidson Motor Company. The class, which joined the AMA Pro Road Racing class structure in 2010, features Harley-Davidson XR1200s modified with a special parts and accessories kit from famed motorcycle performance tuner Vance & Hines.

The inclusion of the AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series in the AMA Pro Road Racing fold creates an opportunity for riders to take part in one of the most cost-effective platforms for racing on the national stage. The 2013 season was incredibly competitive and proved the importance of the class. The commercial interest in the class continues to grow as well, with a large number of Harley-Davidson dealerships supporting race teams and riders of the series through sponsorship.

Although the Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series is the newest addition to AMA Pro Road Racing -- with 2014 marking just the fifth season of competition for the spec-based class -- its fan interest and popularity with riders continues to increase year-by-year. Look for the non-stop action in this exciting and unique division to continue for years to come.

CLASS STRUCTURE AND CHAMPIONSHIP POINTS

The entrant-based AMA Pro SuperBike and GoPro Daytona SportBike divisions compete for rider, team and manufacturer championships. Both classes will have timed qualifying sessions to determine starting grids and unless otherwise noted, SuperBikes will run two 50-mile races per weekend and Daytona SportBikes will run two 45-mile races, one Saturday and one Sunday for each class. Manufacturer points will be awarded to each participating manufacturer for its highest-placing finisher in each race. Team points will be awarded to each entrant for its highest-placing finisher in each race.

AMA Pro SuperSport and the Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series will also have timed qualifying sessions, but these two rider-based classes will be solely focused on competing for the rider championship and the coveted number one plate that comes along with it. Aside from the declared single-race weekends, SuperSport will run two 35-mile races, one Saturday and one Sunday. The big twins in the Harley-Davidson Series are showcased in one 25-mile race per weekend.

Back-up bikes are only allowed to be used in the AMA Pro SuperBike division, with one caveat. During SuperBike race finals, back-up bikes are only allowed if the race leader has not yet completed two laps. Points for all championships and in all classes will be awarded to the top 20 finishers in each race. Points will be scored as per the following schedule:

1.	30	11.	10
2.	25	12.	9
3.	21	13.	8
4.	18	14.	7
5.	16	15.	6
6.	15	16.	5
7.	14	17.	4
8.	13	18.	3
9.	12	19.	2
10.	11	20.	1

The rising stars in SuperSport are also eligible for the Young Gun Award, a special award given to the rider between the ages of 16 and 18 with the most points at the end of the season.

Riders must complete a minimum of 50% of the race laps run in order to receive championship points. Riders will not be credited for partial laps; only completed laps will count towards the minimum requirement. However, riders will receive purse money for their earned grid positions if there are purse-paying positions beyond the number of riders listed in the results.

Ties in the point standings will be broken based on the number of wins. If that does not break a tie, the number of second-place finishes will be compared, then thirds, fourths, etc. until the tie is broken. If a tie remains, the best finish in the last race will determine the champion. Ties will be broken as they occur.

PENALTIES

The pit road speed limit is 50 MPH. This is not to be exceeded in any session. Fines are levied during practice and qualifying sessions; either ride-through penalties or time penalties, in which seconds are added to the overall race time of offending riders, are assessed during races.

Each race's standing start is monitored by both video and human observation. If a rider jumps a start, a time penalty of ten seconds or a ride-through penalty will be assessed.

Ride-through penalties are assessed for a variety of additional reasons including: pit-stop procedure penalties such as personnel and equipment violations, improper refueling and other safety and procedural rule infractions.

More serious penalties may also be given for violations that jeopardize the safety of others. Celebratory activity, including doing a burnout, is permitted only after the checkered flag of a race final and only in a safe location away from spectators, participants and others that may be injured in the event of flying debris or mechanical failure. Additionally, any rider, participant or team that intentionally engages in an activity with the consequence negatively impacting a competitor's performance, including avoidable contact, may be subject to harsher penalties.

In order to keep costs down for the paddock as a whole, AMA Pro Racing has instituted a policy intended to prevent riders from gaining a competitive advantage by testing at facilities on the AMA Pro Road Racing schedule within 30 days of scheduled events. The rule applies to riders who meet certain criteria, such as being in the top of a class' point standings. Any rider who meets the criteria and violates the rule will be gridded at the back of the grid. If there is more than one rider who violates the rule, the rider with the most points will start further back.

FLAGS

The following flags are used in AMA Pro Road Racing:

GREEN	Start of race or clear track conditions. Green lights are also used.
CHECKERED	End of race, practice or qualifying session.
WHITE (WAVING)	Final lap of race.
YELLOW	Stationary: Potentially hazardous situation on track, proceed with caution, passing allowed. Yellow lights are also used. Waving: Serious hazardous situation on track, proceed with caution, passing not allowed. Flashing yellow lights could also be used.
BLUE	Indicates to a rider that they are about to be overtaken or lapped. These riders must allow the overtaking rider(s) to safely pass at the earliest opportunity.
BLACK	Rider needs to exit race track. Usually accompanied by a number board.
BLACK WITH ORANGE CIRCLE	Rider has been assessed a ride-through penalty. Usually accompanied by a number board.
RED	When displayed on track, indicates that all riders must slow and go to the pits. Also indicates pit-lane exit is closed when displayed at pit out. Red lights could also be used.
YELLOW FLAG/RED STRIPES	Indicates debris, fluid or a potentially hazardous situation on track.
STATIONARY WHITE FLAG WITH RED CROSS	Safety vehicle on course.
ROLLED UP WHITE AND GREEN FLAGS	When crossed, indicates 1/2 total race distance is complete.

COMMUNICATIONS INFORMATION

PRESS RELEASES

AMA Pro Racing issues press releases regarding the organization as well as AMA Pro Road Racing. The releases, which include the latest series news as well as practice, qualifying and race information during race weekends, are distributed in the media center and via email. Media members interested in receiving AMA Pro Racing Press Releases can register at www.amaproracing.com/signup.

WEBSITE FEATURES AND NEWSLETTERS

In addition to official series press releases, AMA Pro Racing also produces website-only content. Topics include rider spotlights focused on building the personalities of riders in the AMA Pro paddock, tech discussions offering up guidance on motorcycle maintenance and safety techniques, and product features, which highlight products offered by one of AMA Pro Racing's partners. AMA Pro Racing distributes a weekly newsletter with links to the daily features posted during the previous week. Media members interested in receiving AMA Pro Newsletters can register at www.amaproracing.com/signup.

SOCIAL MEDIA INITIATIVES

AMA Pro Racing is focused on expanding its social media initiatives over the course of the 2014 season. All of the official content featured on the AMA Pro Racing website is posted to the AMA Pro Road Racing Facebook and Twitter pages, and on race weekends, the official Twitter account is used to provide fans with the latest news and information from the racetrack. Please use the following links to follow us:

MEDIA SITE

The AMA Pro Racing Media Site features links to the latest series news and web content, access to high resolution head shots and photos from each practice, qualifying and race session, series and class logos in vector format, downloadable Series Media Guides and links to results agate from each race session. Media members are encouraged to visit this one-stop shop for AMA Pro Racing news and information by signing up and logging in at <http://media.amaproracing.com>.

RESULTS AND HISTORICAL DATA WEBSITE

Official results and detailed Timing & Scoring reports on every AMA Pro Road Racing session are immediately uploaded to the AMA Pro Racing Results and PDF Archives Website, where they can often be accessed before they are even available in the Media Center. This online portal, which hosts archived results and standings PDFs from each round of competition since the 2004 season, is available at <http://results.amaproracing.com>.

LIVE TIMING WEBSITE AND STREAMING PRESS CONFERENCES

AMA Pro Racing's Live Timing & Scoring system has been developed in-house to provide competitors and fans with accurate results and statistics in the most efficient manner possible. During each session of competition, users can follow along with the racing action while also viewing rider headshots, bios and detailed laptimes data for every rider on the circuit. The Live Timing Website displays real-time commentary in the form of posts from the official Twitter feed. Press conferences are streamed via the Live Timing Website so that fans at home can hear about the action directly from the riders the minute that they get off the track. The Live Timing Website is available at <http://live.amaproracing.com/rr>.

MOBILE APPS AND MOBILE WEBSITE

AMA Pro Racing publishes Mobile Apps for iPhone and Android users. The Lite App is free on both platforms and features basic Live Timing data. The Pro App costs 99 cents and features season and event schedules, session results, point standings, links to recent news stories and an expanded Live Timing page, including rider headshots, bio information and detailed laptimes data. AMA Pro's iPhone apps are available in the iTunes store, while Android users should head for Google Play. All web-enabled mobile visitors to AMA Pro Racing's website are redirected to the AMA Pro Racing mobile-friendly website, where a quick click on either Road Racing or Flat Track directs fans to a wealth of easy-to-navigate information, such as season schedules and ticket links, news teasers, mobile app descriptions and links, plus Twitter integration and Facebook "Like" features.

MEDIA RELATIONS INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Media members wishing to cover AMA Pro Road Racing events must obtain media credentials from the individual race tracks holding the events. Some tracks require that requests for credentials be submitted by mail to the track public relations director or credentials coordinator, while others have created online registration systems for credential requests. All tracks, however, require that applications be submitted at least two weeks prior to the event. Many tracks do not honor credential requests that are submitted by fax or email. Credential contacts can be found in the track information section of this media guide.

MEDIA HARD CARDS

AMA Pro Racing offers complimentary season-long hard cards to media covering the majority of races, granting the hard card holder open access to most AMA Pro Road Racing and AMA Pro Flat Track events during the current season. Media Hard Card holders should still contact each individual event promoter in advance to ensure that they have met any additional requirements the promoter may have and to request media center access and parking.

All AMA Pro Racing Media Hard Card requests must be printed on company letterhead and submitted by a sports editor or sports director at least 15 days prior to the first event to which the applicant would like to attend. Requests should include recent copies of the publication and must state the name(s) of those covering and their specific duties and/or titles (writers/photographers, etc.). Please submit all requests for AMA Pro Racing Media Hard Cards via email to communications@amaproracing.com or mail to:

AMA Pro Racing
 Attn: Credential Department
 525 Fentress Blvd., Ste. B
 Daytona Beach, FL 32114

If you have any further questions, please contact the AMA Pro Racing membership department at 386-492-1014.

PIT LANE ACCESS

Members of the media are welcome in the paddock, garage and pit areas during AMA Pro Road Racing events. However, some guidelines must be followed when in the pits:

- Cut-off pants and open-toe shoes are not permitted in the pit area, and shirts must have sleeves and a collar
- All media in the pits must obey the instructions of AMA Pro Racing officials
- Only the official AMA Pro Racing photographer and TV broadcast videographers will be allowed over the pit wall

MEDIA CENTER DISTRIBUTION

During each race weekend, the AMA Pro Racing Communications staff distributes printed material in the media center. Among those items distributed are entry lists, press releases, time sheets, statistical advances and other statistic pieces, weekend event and press conference schedules, point standings and more. If there is something you would like to see, please let the staff know. Teams are also encouraged to print and distribute their releases and stat sheets via the media center distribution bins.

PRESS CONFERENCES

Following qualifying and race sessions, the AMA Pro Racing Communications staff will bring the top participants to the media center for interviews. Partner press conferences and team announcements may also be conducted; a press conference schedule will be available in the media center. Team PR representatives interested in conducting a press conference should contact the AMA Pro Racing Communications staff.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Members of the media are permitted to take photographs of on-track action and within the AMA Pro Road Racing paddock and garages at all times, but please remember that no media members are allowed over the pit wall during event weekends. High-resolution photography from each event can be downloaded from the AMA Pro Racing Media Site. These photographs, and all other photographs taken at AMA Pro Road Racing events, are the sole property of AMA Pro Racing and can only be used for non-commercial purposes, which includes media coverage of the series in print and online news stories and editorials. Commercial usage requires the prior, written approval of AMA Pro Racing.

VIDEO

Members of the media are permitted to shoot video in the AMA Pro Road Racing paddock and garages at all times, as well as on-track action of any practice or qualifying session; however, the filming of on-track action during race sessions is strictly prohibited and anyone observed filming during a race session may be required to delete the footage. Please remember that no media members are allowed over the pit wall during event weekends.

SERIES EDITORIAL STYLE GUIDE

AMA Pro Racing

AMA Pro Racing is the professional motorcycle racing sanctioning body for a variety of motorcycle disciplines and is based in Daytona Beach, Fla. All written correspondence or materials should use the full name - AMA Pro Racing — in first reference or mention in all written materials. The acceptable secondary reference is AMA Pro. AMA by itself should never be used in describing AMA Pro Racing, as AMA refers to the American Motorcyclist Association, the member-driven motorcycling organization based in Pickerington, Ohio.

AMA Pro should also be used in all first references or mentions when naming the various racing divisions within the organization. Examples: AMA Pro SuperBike, AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike, etc.

AMA Pro Road Racing

AMA Pro Road Racing collectively describes the four road racing championships sanctioned by AMA Pro Racing. There is no acceptable second or short reference.

AMA Pro SuperBike

AMA Pro SuperBike is the official name of the class and should be spelled as it appears here in all primary instances. SuperBike is one word with initial capitalization and a capital “B” and should be preceded by AMA Pro. If numerous mentions of the class are made, simply AMA Pro SuperBike may be used deep within a document as a short and secondary reference. The word “Championship” may be added to the end of the class name, but only when describing the collective set of events that make up a season.

AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike

AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike is the official name of the class and should be spelled as it appears here in all primary instances. GoPro is one word with a capital “G” and a capital “P.” Daytona SportBike should be two words with initial capitalization and a capital “B.” Daytona and SportBike should always be used together. SportBike by itself should never be used. GoPro Daytona SportBike is the primary and short second reference. If numerous mentions of the class are made, simply AMA Pro Daytona SportBike may be used deep within a document as a third reference, but never before the previous two references are used at least once each. The word “Championship” may be added to the end of the class name, but only when describing the collective set of events that make up a season.

AMA Pro SuperSport

AMA Pro SuperSport is the official name of the class and should be spelled as it appears here in all primary instances. SuperSport should be one word with each “S” capitalized and should be preceded by AMA Pro. If numerous mentions of the class are made, simply SuperSport may be used deep within a document as a short and secondary reference. The word “Championship” may be added to the end of the class name, but only when describing the collective set of events that make up a season.

AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series

AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series is the official name of the class and should be spelled as it appears here in all primary instances. Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series is the primary short and secondary reference. Harley-Davidson XR1200 can be used in a description of the actual motorcycle used to compete in the series, but only in identifying the motorcycle itself. Simply Harley-Davidson can be used as a reference to the motorcycle providing Vance & Hines XR1200 and Harley-Davidson XR1200 have been used at least once each.

AMA Pro Racing Logo Usage

Please see the AMA Pro Racing Logo Standards Guide for use of the AMA Pro Racing logos. This file can be found in the Competitor Information section of www.amaproring.com.

VANCE & HINES

Thirty years of racing. Thirty years of winning. Since 1979, we have sacrificed nothing, and given everything, to provide you with products that are meticulously engineered and manufactured to standards far surpassing the industry. We make products for American V-twins, metric cruisers, sport bikes, and dirt bikes: exhaust systems, fuel injection management, and air intake systems. These are not just your average, run-of-the-mill motorcycle products; every product we manufacture is done so with a purpose. Be it power and performance, quality at a value, or unflinching style, we have the products for you. We are committed to this industry. We live and breathe innovation, never accepting the status-quo, and our reputation for quality and innovation is unrivaled. We pioneered the sport bike market with the SS2R and S4 in the '80s. The cruiser market was revolutionized with our 220-degree full-coverage heatshields, our revolutionary Power Chamber technology, and optional quiet baffles in the '90s. Today, Fuelpak, VO2 Air, Throttlepak, catalyst-based exhaust systems, an all-new sport bike and dirt exhaust lineup, and the race-inspired Pro Pipe and High Output line continue to raise the bar for future years and future products.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

Daytona International Speedway will once again play host to AMA Pro Road Racing as the series kicks off another exciting season with the DAYTONA 200 Week, scheduled for March 13-15, 2014. The highlight of the week is America's longest running endurance motorcycle race, the DAYTONA 200. This 200-mile endurance spectacular features the stars of AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike in a bar-to-bar brawl on Saturday afternoon.

At the 72nd running of the historic race in 2013, Cameron Beaubier dominated the competition as he did in many races during the season. The Californian claimed the victory by a whopping 22.254 seconds over second-place finisher Garrett Gerloff. Although AMA Pro SuperBike legend Mat Mladin's 2004 DAYTONA 200 victory holds the outright record for completing 200 miles around the 3.56-mile traditional road course in 1:46:51.490, Beaubier set a new record for completing the 200-mile trek on the 3.51-mile traditional motorcycle course by finishing in 1:47:07.746 seconds. For 2014, Beaubier will ascend the ranks to the premier AMA Pro SuperBike division to compete alongside Monster Energy Graves teammate and three-time AMA Pro SuperBike Champion Josh Hayes.

In AMA Pro SuperBike at Daytona last year, Josh Herrin and Martin Cardenas took advantage of two Josh Hayes bike malfunctions, resulting in each of them recording a victory to begin the season. Herrin would go on to win three more races and eventually claim his maiden AMA Pro SuperBike Championship.

In AMA Pro SuperSport, Colombians Stefano Mesa and Tomas Puerta each recorded a single victory to begin their 2013 campaigns. Like Herrin did in AMA Pro SuperBike, Puerta kept rolling after his big Daytona win in the SuperSport division, claiming two more victories and eventually capturing the overall AMA Pro SuperSport Championship. The AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series didn't disappoint either, as Tyler O'Hara outlasted a charging Kyle Wyman by a mere .075 seconds to capture his lone victory of the 2013 season.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

Road America is one of the most historic venues in all of motorsports. Located in Elkhart Lake, Wis., this beautiful track measures in at just over four miles and is the longest on the 2014 calendar. As the second round on the 2014 AMA Pro Road Racing schedule, the classic venue will size up the competition as the summer begins to kick in across the nation.

As he did at many tracks in 2013, Josh Hayes dominated the AMA Pro SuperBike doubleheader weekend at Road America as fans witnessed another action-packed weekend of racing. In AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike, Cameron Beaubier and Jake Gagne split a set of victories and second-place finishes. It was the only event weekend in 2013 that Beaubier didn't sweep. In AMA Pro SuperSport competition, Corey Alexander had by far his most successful weekend of the season, dominating the competition with two impressive victories. Steve Rapp got back on track at Road America in AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series competition, winning his first of six races in 2013.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

For Round 3, AMA Pro Road Racing returns to Barber Motorsports Park in Birmingham, Ala. for a full weekend of SuperBike racing on June 21-22, 2014. The event will mark the first two-day event weekend of the 2014 AMA Pro Road Racing season. With immaculate grounds and fan-friendly viewing areas complemented by giant art sculptures that are strategically placed throughout the facility, this is one of the most interesting tracks in the country to visit.

As if the racing action wasn't enough, the historic venue is also home to the Barber Vintage Motorsports Museum which contains over 750 vintage and modern motorcycles for avid race fans to take in over the course of the weekend.

The 2013 event saw Josh Hayes, on the back of his Yamaha R1, dominate both AMA Pro SuperBike races. In AMA Pro Daytona SportBike, Cameron Beaubier's monster 2013 campaign continued at Barber, as the young star won both races in convincing fashion. In AMA Pro SuperSport, rookie phenom Joe Roberts took the field by storm as he dominated both races and collected the first two AMA Pro wins of his promising career, while Steve Rapp took home yet another win in the AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course has been a well-deserved mainstay on the American road racing scene since 1962, and the legendary asphalt has seen some of the most exciting racing action in the country. This year's event at Mid-Ohio, scheduled for the weekend of July 19-20, 2014, will mark the 32nd consecutive year that the series has raced the 2.4-mile circuit nestled in the scenic, rolling hills of Lexington, Ohio.

The venue provides much more than just great racing on a historic racetrack, as it features incredible camping and spectator viewing areas which give the picturesque property a park-like feel.

Former Monster Energy Graves Yamaha teammates Josh Hayes and Josh Herrin split victories in AMA Pro SuperBike competition in 2013. In GoPro Daytona SportBike, Cameron Beaubier was in perfect form as he won both races. Tomas Puerta and Hayden Gillim split victories in AMA Pro SuperSport and Steve Rapp rode his XR1200 to his third consecutive AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series victory in 2013.

TRACK SNAPSHOT

When the series rolls into Millville, N.J. on the weekend of September 13-14, 2014, AMA Pro Road Racing will be returning to New Jersey Motorsports Park for the sixth consecutive year of hugely successful SuperBike racing. The 2.2-mile, 14-turn natural road course has been a battlefield for competitors since the gorgeous grounds were added to the schedule in 2009, the track's second year of operation.

Like they did several times in 2013, Josh Hayes and Josh Herrin split victories in AMA Pro SuperBike competition at NJMP last season. The Monster Energy Yamaha teammates' rivalry in 2013 was about as intense as it could get and this particular weekend really brought that to light. In GoPro Daytona SportBike, Cameron Beaubier did what he does best, win. Beaubier's sweep at NJMP in 2013 were his 10th and 11th victories on the year, setting the class record for most wins in a season. In AMA Pro SuperSport, Hayden Gillim and Tomas Puerta each recorded victories while Steve Rapp continued his amazing 2013 campaign with a big AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series win.

JOSH HERRIN - 2013 AMA Pro SUPERBIKE CHAMPION

SEASON RECAP

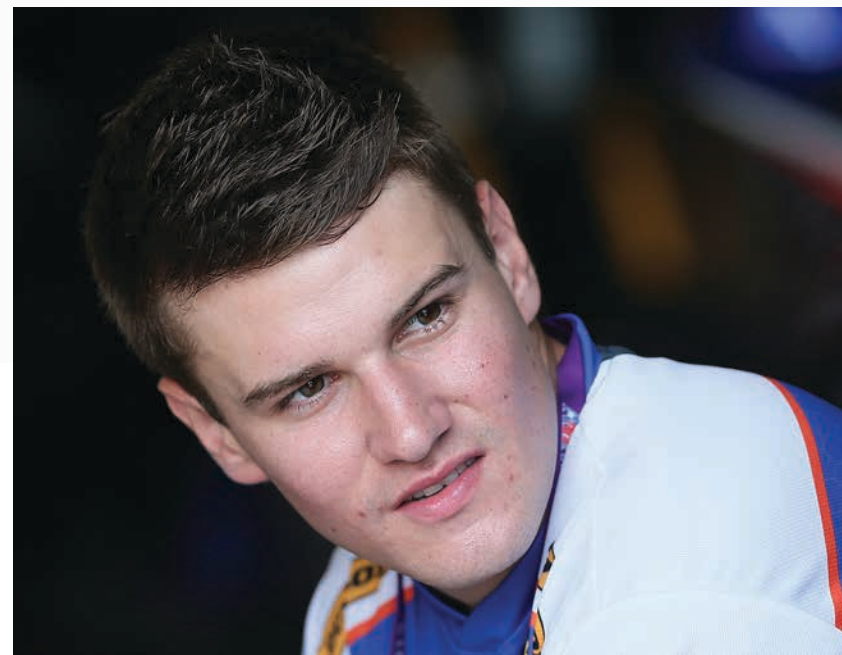

Since joining Yamaha in 2005, Josh Herrin has won race after race aboard his YZF-R6 and YZF-R1, and dreamed about bringing home a Championship for the iconic brand. In 2013, Herrin accomplished his goal. The 23-year-old from Dublin, Ga., won the coveted AMA Pro SuperBike Championship, edging out former three-time, reigning champion and Monster Energy Graves Yamaha teammate Josh Hayes by 15 points in the final standings.

It was an incredible year for Herrin, who altogether finished with 12 total podiums and four key victories. Herrin maximized the opportunities given to him in 2013, and did exactly what he had to in order to secure his first-career AMA Pro Road Racing title. From the season's outset, Herrin set the tone early with a big race-one victory at Daytona International Speedway. Consistency also played a key part in Herrin's path to earning his first championship, had it not been for a sixth-place result at Road America early on, Herrin would have finished inside the top-five in every race in 2013. However, the Georgian immediately got back to his steady ways on the back of his powerful Yamaha R1 and finished out the season with an impressive combination of speed and finesse.

CAMERON BEAUBIER - 2013 AMA Pro GoPro DAYTONA SPORTBIKE CHAMPION

SEASON RECAP

There were 13 AMA Pro GoPro Daytona SportBike races in 2013 and Cameron Beaubier won 12 of them, claiming the GoPro Daytona SportBike Championship following his record-breaking and triumphant 2013 campaign. On the back of his Yamaha YZF-R6, the California native shredded the competition and completed the undisputed greatest season in GoPro Daytona SportBike history.

Beaubier's 12 victories were three more than the previous record for number of wins in a single season by a GoPro Daytona SportBike competitor. If it weren't for a second-place effort at Road America early on, Beaubier's 2013 resume, which included seven perfect-points weekends, would have been nearly flawless. It's safe to say that no one was even in the same stratosphere as Beaubier all season long as the then 20-year-old dominated on all fronts, winning the championship by a total of 149 points in the final standings.

Beaubier was about as automatic as it gets, closing out the season's final ten races with victories, sometimes by more than a ten second margin. The Californian was so impressive in 2013 that he immediately got promoted to the AMA Pro SuperBike ranks with one of the most sought-after race teams in the elite class, Monster Energy Graves Yamaha. Beaubier will flank his newly acquired teammate and three-time AMA Pro SuperBike Champion Josh Hayes for the 2014 AMA Pro Road Racing season.

TOMAS PUERTA - 2013 AMA Pro SuperSport West/National Champion

SEASON RECAP

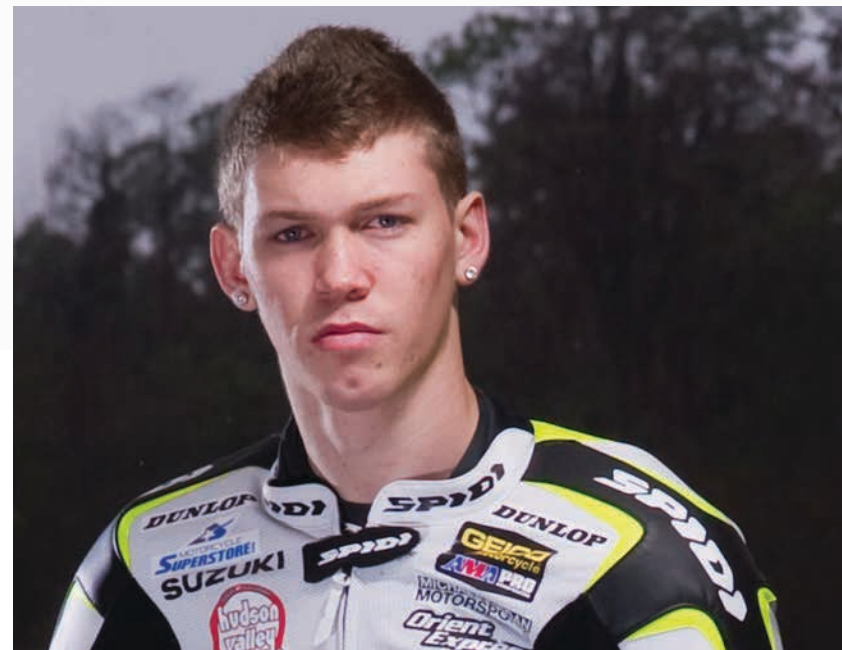

Tomas Puerta took home the coveted 2013 AMA Pro SuperSport West Championship as well as the overall SuperSport National Championship last season. The Colombian native had his best season yet on the back of his Yamaha YZF-R6, as he managed to grab two pole positions and seven podiums, highlighted by three victories, in 2013.

Puerta recorded the fastest qualifying time at Daytona International Speedway during last year's season opener before finishing an uncharacteristic fifth in Race 1. Race 2 proved a different result, however, as the rising star earned his first win of the season by over a full second in a fiercely competitive race.

Entering Round 2 at Road America, Puerta was expected to carry over the momentum gained at Daytona into a successful run at the prestigious Southeast venue. He finished fourth in Race 1 but did manage to save a podium in Race 2 with his third-place effort. Over the next five AMA Pro SuperSport races, Puerta landed on the podium every single time, including two more impressive victories.

COREY ALEXANDER - 2013 AMA Pro SuperSport East Champion

SEASON RECAP

Corey Alexander's 2013 campaign was a successful one as he earned the AMA Pro SuperSport East Championship. The New York product had his best season since entering the professional ranks in 2010 on the back of his Suzuki GSX-R600, as he proved consistency is the key, recording two wins and only landing outside of the top 10 on one occasion in 2013.

Alexander finished with 199 points in the final AMA Pro SuperSport East point standings, and he needed every one of them, as rival Hayden Gillim finished the season only one point shy of Alexander, with 198.

Alexander's best performances came early in the season at Road America where he won both AMA Pro SuperSport races. He barely edged out Stefano Mesa on both occasions, with his closest finish being a Race 2 victory by a mere .012 second margin over the young Colombian. Though Alexander's clean sweep at Road America would be the extent of his victories in 2013, his five podiums would be enough to earn him the championship.

STEVE RAPP - 2013 AMA PRO VANCE & HINES HARLEY-DAVIDSON CHAMPION

SEASON RECAP

Steve Rapp secured his first-career AMA Pro Road Racing title last season by shutting out his competitors during the XR Showdown to win the 2013 AMA Pro Vance & Hines Harley-Davidson Series. Maintaining a slim lead in the points going into the final two rounds of competition, Rapp stepped up when he needed to the most. The seasoned veteran won the final two races at New Jersey Motorsports Park and Mazda Raceway Laguna Seca to fend off noble competitors Tyler O'Hara and Travis Wyman for the crown.

Following a lackluster start to the season at Daytona International Speedway that resulted in a 24th-place result on the weekend, the Californian rebounded quite nicely and ripped off four consecutive victories en route to the title.

Rapp's efforts in 2013 guaranteed him the coveted No. 1 plate, plus a $25,000 payout from Harley-Davidson for winning the XR Showdown.
